Judges' Reports

Gold & Silver Laced

I really enjoyed judging at the Federation Show on 21st December last year. There was not a large entry especially in the Large Fowl but the top placed birds in each class were of a very reasonable standard. I think we must try to get the feathers as broad as possible and the lacing well defined as lots of small feathers detract from the overall appearance of the bird. In the Bantams I noticed quite a number of 'snipey' headed birds too long from beak tip to back of head. There are not many points awarded in the Standard for the head, but it compromises the beauty of the bird.

I doubt many folk will remember each bird but for the individual owners this is how I assessed the birds.

I used 8 categories ie. Type, Lacing, Thigh, Head, Wings, Colour definition, Condition and Presentation giving Good, Moderate or Poor in each category.

Note - The bird awarded 1st in this class was a pullet that had been placed erroneously in pen 5567 which was assigned to Len Lockley. Len confirmed to me that he had not brought this bird, so the pen was empty. The error was not discovered until judging had been completed. TG
